

Allen, Mary Electa (1858-1941)

Travel diary, March 24-July 2, 1908.

1 vol.            mss.            15 cm.

Diary kept by Mary Allen, a writer and photographer, who travelled to England and Scotland in the company of her sister, Frances Stebbins Allen (1854-1941), and Florence and Nelly Birks, all of Deerfield. The diary records their passage from New York City to Portsmouth, and their journey overland as far north as Edinburgh.

Allen records their visits to museums such as the National Portrait Gallery and the Tate Gallery, to historic sites such as Canterbury Cathedral and Stonehenge, and to manor houses.
