

Higginson, Waldo (1814-1894)

Diary, vol. 1, 1862; vol. 2, June 9, 1868-Aug. 26, 1886. Cambridge and Boston, Mass., 1862, 1868-1886

2 vols. manuscript vol. 1, 20.5cm; vol. 2, 18cm

Vol. 1 kept at Cambridge and Boston; vol. 2 kept at Boston

Fuller-Higginson Family Papers, Papers of Anna, Waldo, Susan Louisa, and Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Box 55.

Note: An account of life in the higher financial and social circles of Boston. Higginson is a surveyor for the insurance agency of his brother Stephen. Vol. 1 describes financial dealings (railroad stock) and social life in Civil War Boston. Vol. 2 contains generally terse, single-line entries, dealing with Higginson's services on the Harvard Board of Overseers and continuation of his financial ventures. Vol. 2 includes a record of his 1872 trip to Great Britain with "T.W.H." (his younger brother, Thomas Wentworth Higginson). Both volumes record Higginson's literary interests.