

GUIDE TO HAWKS FAMILY PAPERS

Scope and content note:

The Hawks Family papers have been donated to PVMA from a number of sources. More recent gifts have come from Melvin Hawks, Douglas Sackman, Nancy (Hawks) Durham, and the estate of Mary Jane Hawks.

Biographical notes:

John<sup>2</sup>, son of John<sup>1</sup> and Elizabeth Hawks was born in Windsor, CT, in 1643. He was a carpenter, served as a sergeant in King Philip's War, and was a member of the committee to build a meeting house in 1696. After the attack of 1704 he removed to Waterbury, CT, to live with his only surviving child, Martha, and her family.

His papers consist of the signature portion of a legal document, and four bonds signed by him in 1699 in favor of John Pynchon.

Eliezer<sup>3</sup>, son of John<sup>1</sup> and Elizabeth Hawks, was born in Windsor, CT, in 1655. He came to Deerfield with the first settlers and took an active role in town affairs. His 1689 marriage to Judith Smead was the first recorded on the town register. The couple had ten children. Eliezer died in 1727; Judith died in Jan. 1718/19.

His papers consist of six deeds to land in Deerfield, a power of attorney to Henry Dwight, and six documents relating to the settling of Eliezer's estate.

Eliezer<sup>5</sup>, son of Eliezer<sup>3</sup> and Judith (Smead) Hawks, was born in Deerfield where he lived for nearly all of his life. In 1714, he married Abigail Wells; the couple had 13 children, two of whom are mentioned below. Eliezer died in 1774; Abigail died in 1768.

His papers consist of deeds and plats of land in Deerfield, and an appointment as guardian of the minor daughters of Thankful (Hawks) and Thomas Taylor.

Nathaniel<sup>6</sup>, son of Eliezer<sup>3</sup> and Judith (Smead) Hawks, was born in Deerfield in 1699. He served in Father Rasle's War (1721-22). He married Hannah Belding of Hatfield, c. 1727. After she died in 1736, Nathaniel married Martha Wait of Hatfield, Mass., in 1738. Nathaniel died in 1754; his widow lived until 1786.

His papers consist of three deeds to land in Deerfield, a copy of his will (1754), a probate notice (1755), and papers relating to the distribution of his estate and that of Martha Hawks (1786).

Nathaniel, son of Nathaniel<sup>6</sup> and Judith (Smead) Hawks, was born in Deerfield in 1744. During the Revolution he sided with the Tories, and was jailed for selling beef to the British.

His papers consist of deeds to land in Deerfield, receipts, an action brought against him by Ebenezer Bardwell, and a bond.

Martha, daughter of Nathaniel<sup>6</sup> and Judith (Smead) Hawks, was born in Deerfield in 1746.

She is represented by an undated document.

John<sup>7</sup>, son of Eliezer<sup>3</sup> and Judith (Smead) Hawks, was born in Deerfield in 1707. He entered military service as a young man, and participated in numerous engagements until 1760. He also held several civil offices, including selectman. In 1730, he married Elizabeth Nims; the couple had eight children, two of whom are mentioned below. Elizabeth died in 1779; John in 1784.

His papers consist of land deeds, a deed to a share in a sawmill, two letters to his wife (1759), a copy of a 1748 petition that he and Moses Scott addressed to Gov. Shirley and the Mass. House of Rep., a copy of his will, photocopies of letters, and two copies of Sketch of Col. John Hawks of Deerfield by John Stebbins Lee.

Paul<sup>12</sup>, son of Eliezer<sup>5</sup> and Abigail (Wells) Hawks, was born in 1736. He settled on his father's farm in the Wapping section of Deerfield, and served in the French & Indian wars. He married Lois Wait of Hatfield, Mass., c. 1765; the couple had ten children, two of whom are mentioned below.

His papers consist of four deeds to land in Wapping, and a 1796 letter from his sons Eleazer and Paul, residing in Phelps, NY.
