

GUIDE TO THE ALLEN FAMILY PAPERS PVMA Library

Scope and Content Note:

The Allen Family Papers, received by the Pocumtuck Valley Memorial Association from many sources, consist of original manuscripts of the 17th to 20th centuries written by or addressed to Edward Allyn, weaver, and his descendants; reproductions of similar manuscripts in other locations; genealogical notes; and correspondence of George Sheldon and others relating to the Allen family. Recent donations have come from Judith Lawrence, Joan Faust, William Hubbard, and Carlos E. Allen and family. The numbers in superscript following some of the names in this guide are those assigned to individuals by George Sheldon in the Allen genealogy in the second volume of his History of Deerfield (1895); the following biographical notes are largely based on that source.

Biographical Notes and Description of Manuscripts:

Edward Allen<sup>1</sup> was a weaver in Ipswich, Mass. He married Sarah, daughter of Richard Kimball of Ipswich, in 1658. In 1662 they occupied a farm there, owned by the Reverend John Norton of Boston. In 1678, Edward received a grant of 60 acres of land in Suffield, Ct., and moved there about that time. He died there on November 21, 1696; his wife in June 1696. They appear to have been survived by ten of their 13 children.

He is represented by his will, signed (by mark) "Edward Allyn, sen.<sup>r</sup>" dated November 19, 1696. It is accompanied by an inventory of his estate, prepared by his sons Benjamin and David, December 17, 1696 (The main provisions of this will and the text of the inventory of Allen's estate are included in the second volume of Sheldon's History of Deerfield, part II, pp. 8-9).

John Allen<sup>9</sup>, son of John<sup>2</sup> and Elizabeth (Prichard) Allen, and grandson of Edward Allen<sup>1</sup>, was born in 1684. He was an early settler in Greenfield, Mass. He went to Suffield, Ct., in 1678 and received a grant of 40 acres of land. In 1683 he married Mercy Painter, whose mother was a Lambertson of New Haven, Ct. The couple had nine children. Edward was prominent in town affairs, serving as town clerk and as clerk of the market. He died in 1740.

His papers consist of a bond to Samuel Partridge, judge of probate, co-signed by him and his nephew, John Allen<sup>9</sup>, to provide a true inventory of his brother John's estate, 1705; an inventory of the estate, and an account of debts he paid for his brother, 1708/9.
