

Fuller, George Spencer (1863-1911)

Fuller was born in Deerfield, the eldest child of George and Agnes Fuller. He married Mary Williams Field, daughter of Alfred Russell and Rebecca (Williams) Field, at Deerfield in 1889. By the time of his marriage, he had assumed the responsibilities of the family farm. He had inherited the family artistic talent, and painted landscapes and other works whenever he was free to do so.

1. Diary, Jan.-June, 1872. Boston and Deerfield.

1 vol. mss. 21 cm.

Diary begun by Fuller when in Boston studying painting at "Mr. [George] Bartlett's Studio." At one point Fuller expresses discouragement with his studies and doubts that he will continue. In April, 1882, he returns to Deerfield and works on the family farm. Some loose pages dated 1889 are at the end of the volume.

Shelved in Fuller-Higginson Family Papers, Box 37

2. Diary, Jan. 1, 1894-June 19, 1900

Entries document farm work, local and family news. Some References to painting are throughout.

1 vol. mss. 26 cm.

Shelved in Fuller-Higginson Family Papers, Box 126.