

Mason, Thaddeus Perry (1817-1851)

Journals, 1835-1837; private journals, 1838-1851. Dublin, NH

16 vols.        Mss.

Mason was a teacher and mill owner in Dublin, N.H. He died of consumption.

In the 1835 diary, he is still a student until he begins teaching in November. Mentions of weather and farm work. Attended lectures and various meetings, some travel in New Hampshire.

Also on microfilm

M 922.7

M412j

Shelved in the Mason Family Papers.