

Townsend, William (1840-1914)
Diary, 1864. Conway, MA

Mss. 1 vol. 12.5 cm x 8.5 cm.

Diary of William Townsend of Conway, MA, for 1864, in which he records the weather and various daily activities relating to visits with family, friends, and business associates and activities relating to farming (tobacco, hay, corn, apples, potatoes, bark, sheep, and steers). Early in the year, he travels around the area selling James K. Hosmer's Civil War book The Color-Guard. The back of the diary has a section for financial accounts.

Shelved in Diary Collection