

Wilby, Margaret Crowninshield (1890-1968)
Diaries, 1934-40, 1946-67. Deerfield, MA

22 vols. manuscript sizes vary

Wilby, the daughter of Richard Clark and Margaret Ingersoll Wilby, was a commercial artist.

Daily accounts of weather, artistic endeavors, books she read, travels, social outings, and cultural activities. Early diaries note expenses. The later diaries include mentions of her involvement in a Red Cross charity group.

Shelved in Wilby Family Papers, Box 3.